FALL REVIVAL OPENS SUNDAY

Chism To Preach, Lush To Sing

Administration Members Attend

National Meeting

Members of the Olivet College Administration attended the educational conference of the American Nazarene Colleges Oct. 6-9, on the University of Chicago campus sponsored by the Department of Education of the Church of the Nazarene. Attending from ONC were Dr. Harold W. Reed, president; Dr. Willis Snowbarger, dean of the college; and Charles L. Henderson, business manager.

There were 33 persons who officially attended the convention including presidents, deans and business managers of all six of the American Nazarene colleges and the presidents of Canadian Nazarene College and Olivet Nazarene College.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss some of the educational problems and issues that the Nazarene colleges are faced with in these days.

Ludwig Speaks

Several persons spoke to the group including Dr. S. T. Ludwig, executive secretary of the Department of Education in the church; Dr. Samuel Young, general superintendent; Dr. Edward Mann, president of Eastern Nazarene college and Dr. George Frame, president of Hurler.

Also, Business Manager Henderson spoke to a special meeting of the business managers present at the convention. Dr. Reed is the chairman of the Department of Education of the Nazarene Church.

The three persons representing Olivet returned to the campus last Saturday.

MISS FAIRY CHISM

PROF. RONALD J. LUSH

Revival time comes to the Olivet College campus Sunday morning with the start of the fall campaign and will continue through the week until the following Sunday night.

The minister will be the Rev. Miss Fairy Chism, formerly a missionary in South Africa, and the song evangelist will be Professor Ronald J. Lush, well known singer in the Church of the Nazarene.

Services will be held each evening at 7:30 o'clock and during the morning chapel services at 9:30. The Rev. L. Guy Nees will conduct the evening services for the meeting which is a cooperative affair between the college and the College Church.

Chism Is Former Missionary

The lady evangelist, Miss Chism, was formerly a missionary director of the Schmelenbach Memorial Station of Swaziland, South Africa. She served on the African field as a missionary for the Church of the Nazarene over 20 years.

In addition to the work as director, Miss Chism served at various times as principal of the girls' school at the station, taught languages, acted as matron for boarding students and spent several years as pastor of the local church.

Graduate Of Northwest

She is a graduate of Northwest Nazarene College, where she was a close friend of Mrs. Louise Robinson Chapman, whom she later joined in missionary endeavors in Africa.

Now Miss Chism is spending much of her time in touring, lecturing and evangelistic work. She is widely known and acclaimed as a speaker and her services are constantly in demand.

Lush Is Baritone

Professor Lush is experienced as a music professor, church music director and song evangelist. He hails from Oakland, Calif., and just recently entered the field of full-time song evangelism.

Lush is a baritone soloist of recognized ability and also uses the trumpet effectively in his music work.

He has been active in the field of church music since 1939 when he began his service as director of music at the Woodlawn Church of the Nazarene in Chicago. Since then he has held similar positions at Seattle, Wash.; Pasadena, Calif.; Salem, Oregon; and Oakland, Calif.

Headed College Music Department

The experienced musician also has served as head of the music department at Northwest Nazarene College and Pasadena College. He taught for a time at Casende College in Portland, Oregon, and in the public school system four years.

Loftice Leads Students In Good Start at ONC; Is A Tireless Worker

By Darrell Holland

It seems that the opinion of the student body of Olivet College thus far this semester has been that we are having one of the best years the school has ever experienced.

If we were to attribute the success of the activities to any one person in the student body it would be Walter Loftice, our student council president.

Walt, as he is known by his many friends, is to be praised for doing an outstanding job in carrying on the student activities' program so far this semester.

A tireless worker, President Loftice has been carrying a load this year heavy enough to "frustrate a horse" and yet he has planned every activity to the point where all agreed that it was a success.

Set Up Calendar

He spent the summer setting up the first semester calendar of events in conjunction with the Lyceum Committee. Since school started he has headed several social events including parties and the barbecue of last Friday, and he also planned the Don Cossack program of Thursday night.

At the present he is serving

on several committees including Lyceum, Chapel, Co-ordinating Commission making plans for Tip-Off and a committee on orientation.

Cossacks Presented In Concert Thursday At KHS Auditorium

A near capacity crowd attended the concert given by the world-famous Platoff Don Cossack Chorus Thursday night at the Kankakee High School auditorium under the auspices of the Lyceum Committee of Olivet College.

The auditorium will seat 1,200 persons and all seats were reserved. Walter Loftice was in charge of the concert arrangements.

Currently the Cossacks are in their 15th anniversary tour and the chorus is comprised of the best of the vocal talent found among the White Russian emigres who fought Communism in Russia as early as 1918.

Originally organized in 1927 in Czechoslovakia, the chorus has been headed by Nicholas Kostrukoff who since that time has acted simultaneously as the chorus leader and administrator. All the choir members are now American citizens.

Recently the Platoff Chorus gave its 5,666th concert and of this number 500 were devoted especially to church music and given at various churches. One such concert was presented at the famous Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris before an audience of 10,000.

The Cossacks first arrived in the United States from Honolulu in 1939 and during their 14-year stay in this country have given more than 1,800 concerts in all of the 48 states.

During the last war the group sang on Armed Service entertainment tours in all parts of the world, including 120 U.S.O. concerts in the Far East and 125 in the states. Also they gave 39 concerts in the fifth war loan drive and 53 at veterans' hospitals in the states.

Districts Aid Olivet Students

The student body of Olivet College paid $171,497.49 last year for tuition in comparison to the $161,273.72 paid by the districts on our educational zone last year in school budgets.

Besides the financial aid of the districts, they are also supporting us with their prayers, and through assistance in securing future students for Olivet.

Let us show the motorcades, representing the different districts, our appreciation as they visit our campus in the future.

Aurora Pictures
Taken Wednesday
During Aurora Day

Aurora Day was held on the Olivet College campus last Wednesday when Blankenberg's Photographers of Kankakee were on the campus taking pictures of the various clubs and organizations.

In charge of the day's activity were Shirley Strickler, editor of the annual; and Bob Crabtree, business manager. Professor D. J. Strickler, Aurora faculty sponsor, assisted in the work.

In chapel that morning several new representatives from the student body were elected to work on the staff.

4,000 New Books
Added To ONC Library

Following a great deal of checking the Shaw Book List, it was finally decided to order 4,000 new books for the Olivet library to fill the place of the 7,000 books and periodicals which were lost in the fire of 1939.

The demand for unavailable books was one of the factors which encouraged the purchasing of a large number of books from the Canterbury College library. This purchase increased the number of shelved books to 19,600 with 4,000 more to be processed.

Since 1946, Miss Ruth Gilley has been the full-time librarian and has been working since that time, along with several different assistants to improve our library. Mrs. Effie Martin is the present assistant.

Upon completion, the proposed new library will make available more room for new books and study privileges.

Business Men
At ONC Oct.

Harlan Heinmiller, director of production schedule for General Motors Corporation, was the main speaker for the Business Men's Conference held at Olivet Oct. 30.

This conference is the Business Administration Council headed by Dr. L. O. and the Commerce Club. One-hundred Nazarene are expected to take part in talks and panel discussions.

Heinmiller will speak to the body in the regular chapel on Friday morning. His subject, "Target for Tomorrow," he will speak on the evening, "The Balance Sheet of Personal Strength."

Mr. Heinmiller received academic training in business administration at the Detroit Institute of Technology and the University of Michigan. After completing his education he became affiliated with General Motors in 1929 and has been with them ever since.

He has a very rich background in church affairs also, having many years in N.Y.P.S. work in Michigan and serving on the Detroit Advisory Board since 1943 and General Board of the Church of the Nazarene since 1952.

Olivet High School
Students Are Active

Rock Creek was the site of the party in the new year for the High School students Oct. 5.

Fourteen high school students went their way to Rock Creek for dog roast. The party was under the direction of Mrs. Betty Morris.

After the event the seniors discussed a place to go for the annual class trip. As yet no place has been decided upon.

Spanish Club Formed

Also a Spanish Club has been formed made up of high school students taking Spanish. Officers of the club for this year are Tom Ramquest, president; Anita Birchard, vice-president; Linda Cleverings, secretary; and Jim Vetter, treasurer.

The Social and Chapel committees for both seniors and undergrads have been elected. The committees for the seniors are: Social Committee, Linda Cleverings and Edmond Nielson; Chapel Committee, Mary Bobb and Edmond Nielson.

For the undergrads it is Nancy Whipple, Betty Ellen, and Pat Lane. The Chapel Committee is made up of Anita Birchard and Dick McIntyre.

Class Officers Listed

Class officers for this year are: Don Dale president; Dale Wyatt, vice-president, and Katherine Beegle, secretary-treasurer for the seniors. Ed Stovall is president, Bob Wilson is vice-president, and Pat Lane is secretary-treasurer for the undergrads.

Sloan Attends Convention

Professor William Sloan, principal of the high school, attended the Illinois Association of Secondary Principals and North Central Association of Secondary Schools at Champaign, Oct. 6.

Prayer meetings were also held during this week for the coming revival.

Editorial—

Human Filled With Divine

Shakespeare once made Hamlet say, "There's a Divinity that shapes our ends, Rough-hew them how we will."

What the great poet was pointing out when he made his character utter these words was that by certain steps or actions on our part, in cooperation with a Divine being, we attain to that position in life after which we are striving.

Our success or failure can not be completely attributed to Providential causes nor can they be pinned entirely to human resources and activity.

However, if that plane in life which we reach is to be a level which the noble and great attain we must have a proper correlation between the human and the Divine.

God is depending on His army of humanity filled with the Holy Spirit to bring about His will on the earth. On the other hand, we are very much dependent on the presence of the Holy Spirit if we are to have that satisfaction after which every human heart yearns.

It would seem, perhaps, that all of God's higher creation would be seeking that proper cooperation between its Maker. Such is not the case, and because of this unbalanced existence between human and Divine we have been forced to attempt to remedy the situation.

A revival is one means which we employ to help bring about this cooperation between God and man. A revival is a religious awakening in which we attempt to restore people from their state of negligence.

Sunday will mark the start of the fall revival at Olivet College. Of course, there are those on the campus who are living out of the harmony of the Grace of God.

In this time of soul inspiring and refreshing meetings may a great host of Olivetians enroll their names in the Army of God which is using its human resources filled, strengthened and guided by the Holy Spirit to reach that level of aspiration at which God would have us arrive.

Remember the advice of Jesus, "SEEK YE FIRST THE KINGDOM OF GOD AND HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS; AND ALL THESE THINGS SHALL BE ADDED UNTO YOU." Let's prove this admonition of our Master!

Nees Speaks

By L. Guy Nees

Thomas Sugure has written a very daring essay entitled, "A Catholic Speaks His Mind." Among many very challenging and thought-provoking statements here is one: "It does not introduce him to God or to the deep gregariousness of spiritual life; It acquaints him with religious sectarianism and with the dismal fact that in his relation to God he must through all his life be separated from the majority of his fellowmen whom God has informed him are his brothers and commanded him to love."

This statement is made with reference to a dilemma nearly every American boy finds himself in as he becomes aware of his spiritual affiliation and segregation.

In our love and loyalty for our church, it is easy to be satisfied with "acquainting people with religious sectarianism" rather than introducing them to God. Over and over again I have heard the admission that a person may become a Christian in a moment of time, but it takes a much longer time to make a Nazarene out of him.

This may be true, and rightly so, but is our greatest interest in "making Nazarenes" or converting sinners into Christians? Are we satisfied to develop a group of followers who are merely sold on the Nazarene program and interested in our particular ritualism? I think not.

Our greatest responsibility is to bring people into the presence of God so that their lives may be changed by His wonderful presence. If this is what we mean by the "Nazarene swing" then our practice is altogether justified.

Occasionally it is necessary to acquaint our congregation with the departmental interests of the church, but even these services should not be promoted in the same spirit as a business organization that is building an institution among men. These interests must be spoken of as the program and plan of God for if they are not of God they are not Nazarene.

This same truth will apply to our doctrinal emphasis. The fact is that folks may become "Holiness folks" without becoming holy people. They may know the doctrine and testify with rigid theological accuracy, but at the same time be void of hearts that have been washed in His blood and filled with His Spirit.

Holiness that guides its actions by the sermon on the mount, that clothes itself in the humility of Jesus, that courageously stands with Peter on the day of Penetcost and bravely follows Paul in sacrificial service, has universal appeal. It introduces men to God. But Holiness that is small and sour, that rankles in the business meeting, that forms a false foundation for political planning, that is merely nosy and uncouth, does nothing but acquaint folks with religious sectarianism.

Whether we want to realize it or not, the world is passing through a very definite religious change for narrow sectarianism has done much to discourage millions of people from entering church doors. We may see more of this attitude, but still the world is in need of spiritual guidance. It has more interest in the message than the framework. It may not want ecclesiastism but it does want God.

Clubs Plan Busy Year

Campus Clubs Organized; Many Activities Planned

By Carolyn Eckley

Sept. 25, club day, opened the year of extra-curricular activities with a challenge to everyone to join the clubs of their choosing. Since that day, many of the organizations have already had meetings.

Religious Organizations Active

The Student Prayer Band has a special revival emphasis week planned this week. Cal Mathews, vice-president, was the first speaker of the week. The other officers of the Prayer Band are Millard Reed, president; and Naomi Stufflebeam, secretary.

Another religious organization on campus is the Ministerial Fellowship. Gene Fuller, the president, has announced plans for a special project to sponsor a home-mission church.

Also, Saturday morning breakfasts are planned with district superintendents from the districts on our educational zone as the special speakers.

$1,500 Chapel Planned

Students are interested not only in home-missions but also foreign missions. The Student Missionary Band has as its president, Al Wilson. Mary Birchard is vice-president; Katherine Yogi, secretary; and Gordon Dawes, treasurer. A $1,500 chapel for Japan is their special project this year.

Once a month on Sunday afternoon this club has a meeting with a special emphasis on a different field each time. The Missionary Band also sponsors the prayer and fasting meetings.

Howard To Speak

On Nov. 19-22, Rev. Everett Howard, returned missionary, will be the special speaker for the Missionary Band.

Science Club In Action

One of the more "active" clubs on campus is the Science Club. Oct. 3, the club had a weiner roast at Rock Creek which was attended by 25 members.

Everyone interested in the field of science is invited to the first meeting, Oct. 20 in room 303, Burke Hall at 7:15 p. m. The calendar of events for the year features a field trip to Chicago, annual breakfast at Yesterday Restaurant, and a hay-ride, President Charlie Pauley announced.

Pauley Attends Meeting

Nov. 11, Charlie Pauley, treasurer of the Future Teachers of America here at school, is going to a state conference to represent our local chapter with the officers of the club as delegates also.

Charlie was elected 1st vice-president of the state organization last spring.

Ruth Shearrer is president of Olivet's chapter; Don Keeling, vice-president; and Ruth Peters, secretary. Oct. 13 was the first meeting.

Dawson Heads Dramatic Club

Chi Sigma Rho elected as its officers Maxine Dawson, president; Charlie Pauley, vice-president; Rhea Buchanan, secretary-treasurer. The Debate Club elected Keith Engle, president; Bill Winegar, vice-president; and Lloyd Patterson, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Brown is the sponsor of both of these clubs and many activities have been planned for the coming year for all those interested.

The Commerce Club had a weiner roast Oct. 10, at Rock Creek, which was attended by about 40 members. All those interested in business are invited to the meetings the first Tuesday of each month.

On the third Tuesday of each month the Gale Organ Guild has its meeting. The Guild promotes an interest in organ music and the functions of the organ.

Hay-Ride Planned

The dorn associations are already planning this year's activities. The representatives to the M. D. A. were elected as follows: first floor, Chuck McCullough and Fred Fortune; second floor, Jim Mitchell and Bob Crabtree; third floor, Chester Barnes and Ora Smith; fourth floor, Gene Phillips and Paul Lawrence. Al Wells and Jim Sheckler were representatives elected at large.

Cal Mathews, president, announces plans for a W.R. A. and M.D.A. hay-ride and party to be coming soon.

$8,500 Raised For New Church Building

There was over $8,500 raised in pledges for the new College Church building last Sunday morning, it was announced by the Rev. L. Guy Nees, church pastor.

The pledges were made to be paid weekly over the next six month period for the most part, Nees reported.

The College Church pastor stated that he expects the total amount to reach the $12,000 goal which has been set by the church board. Late pledges should send the building fund drive over the top, Nees pointed out.

At the present time there is over $70,000 in the building fund. A ground-breaking ceremony for the proposed $200,000 structure may be held next spring, Nees said.

The church will be built at the south end of the campus near Olivet Street.

Olivet Enrollment Has Reached 887

The enrollment at Olivet has reached 887 in comparison to last year's total of 902, according to the present figures in the Registrar's office.

The seniors total 121, the juniors 122, sophomores 164, while the freshmen are the largest with 294. In the other departments are 30 high school students, 23 Bible Certificate students, and 54 unclassified ones.

If in the framework of the Church of the Nazarene we have contained a message of full salvation that will meet the deep need of men every where then we need to proclaim that message with all the earnestness of soul that we possess. We do not need to worry about "building the church;" it will be built by blood-washed and Spirit-filled men, and it will be His church.

We need to stand with One who long ago said, "I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly."

Council Adds 4 New Members

Recent upper-classmen additions to the student council include Leah Dell Phillips, Jacqueline Spencer, Jack Barnell, and Cal Mathews, who were chosen as representatives at large by an all-student vote.

Freshman elections also added two new members to the council, Gene Phillips, class president, and Gene Foiles, student council representative. Dr. John Cotner has been appointed sponsor of the group and Leah Dell Phillips will serve as secretary.

Student Lounge and Wagon Wheel improvements are the projects of committees functioning within the council at the present time. The council is also working with the Lyceum committee to plan further activities for week-ends.

The bulletin board will carry announcements of these programs, among which will be the "Trecker Travelog."

Walter Loftice, president of the student council, adds: "Your Council wishes to serve the students to the fullest extent and is thus open to suggestions from the students at any time."

Religion

In the

SPOTLIGHT

By Millard Reed

The sound of a rustling in the top of the mulberry tree is being heard upon Olivet's campus. Many and varied are the indications which strengthen our faith concerning the coming Revival.

Our evangelists are outstanding! Miss Fairy Chism is a lady of devoted life and consecrated abilities who spent many years on the missionary field. She comes to us deeply burdened.

Ronald Lush is a man of outstanding musical abilities.

Equally important are the current activities on campus. For some time dorm and class prayer-meetings have been interceding on behalf of our evangelistic effort. Fasting services have placed particular emphasis upon our revival.

Revival Emphasis Week

This week in Student Prayer Band is "Revival Emphasis Week." The Lord is helping us in an intensive preparation for the revival. The fine messages of Cal Mathews, our vice-president, John Hay and Dave Miller have brought us closer to God. This emphasis continues tonight as La-Marr Deaton speaks and tomorrow night as your reporter speaks. All these are excellent and we thank God for them.

Yet we must all remain aware that each of us have our own place and our individual responsibility in this revival effort. Your place in this combat for Christ cannot be filled by any amount of organization or planning. You possess the key whereby some enslaved soul may be liberated. The responsibility is yours.

If you will dare to accept the challenge, I am sure you will remember this revival as outstanding because of God's workings.

Dug-Out Dope

By Maxine Dawson

I've noticed several of the girls, with their fingers crossed, counting the days until Tip-Off; a sure sign that campus life is in full swing with the activities off to a good start.

While waiting for the seniors' return, Camilla Marsh became so anxious to see her Jack she practically wore out the road in front of Tiny and Effie's waiting for the bus .... As the bus pulled in Charlie Pauley was overhead making the statement now that he was back he was going shop-lifting for a girl and probably a frosh too, they say a word to the wise is sufficient .... Jim Sheckler seemed awfully glad to be back and Frances Grandy was just as glad to see him, by the way kids aren't these weekends getting to be a habit? .... Say Bob and Shirley I've been wondering where business leaves off and pleasure begins .... I'd like to know where Mary and "Jim" were the afternoon of Freshmen Work Day .... Gene Younger must have discovered "faint heart n'er won fair lady" and switched his tactics to win Jan .... Has Dean Cummings at last developed a romantic interest?

Congratulations to Marge Combs and Jim Hogan, both former students, who were married Sept. 26 at Marseilles, Ill. They are now living in Key West, Fla., where Jim is stationed with the Navy.

Marge Shrum has discovered it was much cheaper to have Herb here, why don't you write the postal department Marge, maybe they would give you reduced rates for the amount of business you give them .... Gerald Newby, one of our talented freshmen, is taking himself a wife come Thanksgiving .... We were happy to see two former students last weekend. It seems Uncle Sam gave Neil Swanson and Bob Small weekend passes (you just can't get away from weekend passes) and they hurried back to their Alma Mater and the girls they left behind .... I hear Carolyn Helms and Joyce Hamell had trouble with the "maid" in New York, who was it girls .... Tom Short has finally crashed the going-steady bracket by latching on to Darla Hick .... And from the looks of things it won't be long before brother Ken and Sharon Spence follow.

Just as a moth emerges into a beautiful butterfly so is our campus changing into a place of color as the summer clothes are put away and the favorite skirts and sweaters are brought out. We especially give roses to the fellows for their snappy outfits, it's quite a change for the better — keep it up.

By the way Dave Boice quite a number of the girls are asking two questions: 1—When are you going to give the girls a break? 2—Who will be the lucky one? Maybe the answer has been supplied by a pretty blonde, huh Dave?

Newby New Outstanding Musician on ONC Campus

By Carol Lockwood

A Hoosier at heart but a musician at heart, we find a spectacular figure on campus.

JERRY NEWBY

... A Talented Music Lover

He has appeared before our student body several times as a harpist. As you have guessed by this time, I am talking about Gerald Newby of Clinton, Ind. His father is the pastor of the Nazarene Church there.

Started Young

As we look into the past of his music career, we find that at the age of 5, Gerald started taking piano and organ lessons at Evansville College in Indiana where he continued till the age of 10.

Six years lapsed and he continued music with a few private lessons and by his own initiative he learned to play the vibraharp. In addition to all this, he also mastered the trombone in order to be in the school band.

After six years it was time again for Gerald to go further with his music ability, so he entered Jordan Conservatory of Music in Indianapolis, Ind. There he took harp lessons for a few months, then transferring to Indiana University for two years previous to his coming to Olivet.

While studying at Indiana he had the honor of playing his harp in a duet with Reinhart Elster, the first harpist in the Metropolitan Opera, during the harp festival.

Will Study in Maine

Coming to Olivet has not halted the music career of Gerald. He plans to obtain his college training in order to be a song evangelist and then enter Music Mountain in Maine with Carlos Selzado, to continue study on his harp.

The very short time we have all known Gerald we have enjoyed his music ability, especially the harp since it is the first time we have had the honor of having a harpist as a fellow classmate.

POETRY SPEAKS

A REMINDER

By Joe Herdler

Revival time will soon be here,
When God's sweet spirit hovers near.

And if His words we but receive,
Rich blessings He will not bereave.

His messenger is sent in love,
With gospel manna from above.
Our full support we must impart,
So truth can find each needy heart.

Now let us work and pray and pay,
And do God's will from day to day.

Let's keep our candles always bright,
To guide lost souls from sin's dark night.

TEN-THIRTY

By Joe Herdler

The boy and girl sit hand in hand,
Beneath the starry skies.
How sweet this flower of love in bloom,

How warm their tender sighs.
How perfect is this cozy bench,
Beside the ivy wall.
But sad is fate,
She can't be late,
So back to William's Hall.

Also, the hefty student body president serves as chairman of the student council and has already set up committees on the council for reviewing and initiating necessary recreational improvements in the student lounge and the Wagon Wheel.

Born In Kentucky

Walt is a southerner at heart and was born south of the Mason Dixon Line in Barbourville, Ky., Jan. 22, 1931. He attended the Middlesboro, Ky. High School and Barbourville High. At the latter he proved his ability in sports and played on the varsity football and baseball teams.

He graduated from high school however, at God's Bible School in Cincinnati where he was president of his class during both his junior and senior years. His first year of college also was taken at God's Bible School and he headed his freshman class.

In September of 1950 Walt enrolled at Olivet and has been a student and resident here since that time. At Olivet he has been active as chaplain of his sophomore class, treasurer of the Platonian Philosophical Society for one year, a member of the Ministerial Fellowship and an Indian.

Married in 1951

It was in July of 1951 that Loftice was married to the former Helen Mullenax of Arbovale, W. Va. Mrs. Loftice attended the University of Cincinnati and Asbury College. At present she is secretary for the dean of men, Paul Schwada.

Walt is studying for the ministry and his future plans call for at least three years at Kansas City attending Nazarene Theological Seminary. Already he has had extensive preaching experience and spent two years as pastor of the Gilman, Ill., Nazarene Church where he resigned this summer.

This year the Loftices are residing in a Leist cottage.

When Walt was questioned about his philosophy of leading the student body he said, "One thing of chief interest to me is an intensified and more creative and constructive extra-curricular program for the students."

"I would like to see an expansion of recreational facilities and a closer correlation and better understanding of respective student and administrative officers."

"I wish to be a mediator between administration and students to bring about a better understanding of the responsibility of each."

Interested In Spiritual

Also, Walt reported, "I am interested in promoting the necessary spiritual emphasis of the school above all the other aspects of college campus life."

Thus, the next time you see a bruising 220 pound sandy-haired fellow working in the foyer of the Ad building selling tickets to a program, or laboring with much effort with some committee you know it will be your student council president, Walter Loftice.

And, remember because of Walt's tireless and ceaseless efforts we already have had one of the best starts for the school year at Olivet in history and we have every reason to believe that come next May we will be able to report, "Best school year in ONC history."

Dr. Clarence Grothaus Heads Chemistry Dept.

By Carol Lockwood

Chemistry, puzzles and music make a brief analysis of the life of Dr. Clarence Grothaus.

The year 1930 found Dr. Grothaus graduating from Greenville College with an A. B. degree in chemistry. Later in 1936 he returned for three years to be head of the chemistry department and director of collegiate industries.

DR. CLARENCE GROTHAUS
... A Scientist At Work

After obtaining his A. B. degree, Dr. Grothaus took graduate work at the University of Kansas where he received his master's degree in organic chemistry.

This professor did not stop with a M. A. degree, however, and in 1935 he received his doctor of philosophy degree as a major in organic chemistry and a minor in bacteria at the University of Kansas.

Papers Published

While taking his graduate work at the University of Kansas, Dr. Grothaus was assistant instructor in chemistry later returning as research chemist for 6 years in the University of Kansas Research Foundation. Also he was in charge of the chemistry department at Bethany-Peniel College for seven years.

He had two publications which were written for research work at K. U. These were, "Pulp and Paper from Kansas Straw," and "Chemicals from Sugar." His two papers for graduate degrees were published in scientific journals.

The government then used him in administrative work as a chief chemist of the Sunflower Ordinance Works the year previous to his coming to Olivet.

Busy During College Days

While in college he was in several activities that kept him busy. He participated in male debate teams, A-cappella chorus, as violinist, played in several orchestras, participated in intra-mural sports as well as editing the college yearbook.

This Olivet teacher also holds membership with Sigma XI, an honorary scientific research society, and the American Chemical Society.

Darel, 14, and Rita Jean, 10, are the two children of Dr. and Mrs. Grothaus. Mrs. Grothaus also shares her time on campus as one of the managers of the "Nook."

He never has a dull moment in his life since he also has some very interesting hobbies, one of these being his violin which he has played in several college orchestras. Another hobby which he enjoys is Boy Scout work. His main hobby, however, is the puzzles he has collected since being in grade school, and he has at this time more than 600 mechanical puzzles. He has made many of these himself and they have provided entertainment for others in performances he has given.

"O" Club Has Initiation Oct. 6

By Dave Miller

As the "blue flash" (Wendy Parsons' hotrod) pulled away from Rock Creek last Tuesday night, Oct. 6, "O" Club prexy, Chuck McCullough stated: "Well, it's time to get to work on 'Tip-Off.'"

From one thing to another. That's Olivet's exclusive letter-winner society, the "O" Club. McCullough had just completed a hectic day of leading the old members through a strenuous initiation for the 16 new members just coming in this year.

The girls' president, Jackie Spencer, was as equally tired at the end of the day as McCullough. She and her fellow members had just sent eight new female athletes "through the wringer."

The initiation began with the new members being aroused at 3:30 in the morning, and quickly garbed in their array for the day. From here, they took "short jaunts" into various spots in Kankakee, to return to campus for breakfast at six o'clock. The menu included appetizing onions and vinegar.

After a "closed" session in the gym that evening, the members received their final indoctrination at Rock Creek followed by a weiner roast.

Tip-Off Anticipated

The members are now looking forward with anticipation to Tip-Off, the annual Homecoming when their cage forces will tangle with the Alumni Nov. 13. Later, next spring, they will sponsor the annual "O" Club Banquet.

List Members

The new 1953 members: Boys, Clint McLouth, Don Williamson, Clarence Fukushima, Elmo Wilson, Windell Kizzie, Moe Hughes, Bob Meyer, Don Keeling, Bud Johnston, Jim Mitchell, Jay Arledge, Floyd Kanipe, Dale Metcalf, Roy Hendley, Ray Morford, and Harold Rose.

Girls, Ruth Peters, Jean Schray, Margie DeBooy, Hattie Lau, Violet Schoenwetter, Norma Blochberger, and Barbara Strong.

The old members wish to congratulate the new "O's" for their wonderful spirit of cooperation they showed throughout the initiation. You're great sports!

Trojans Down Spartans 7-2

Indians Head Olivet Football Loop With Two Straight Wins

The Indians were still yet to be beaten after the second round of football was climaxed last Thursday by the Trojans and the Men in Red playing to a scoreless deadlock.

A neck injury to Indian End Darrrell Trotter with a minute to go halted play of the game, which will be finished along with the regularly scheduled third round game next Tuesday.

Previous to the deadlock, the defending champion, Trojans, had lost their initial game of the season, Oct. 6, dropping a 6-0 verdict to the Spartans, their first gridiron victory since the fall of 1951. A 22-yard aerial from Don Carpenter to Elmo Wilson was the only counter.

Trojans Down Spartans

The Trojans opened the fall campaign with a decisive 24-6 win over the Spartans, thanks to tremendous play of backs Dean and "Smiley" Cummings, and ends Don Williamson and Dave Boice.

The Indians opened their season

Sept. 29 by edging the Trojans, 6-0, on a third-quarter interception by Indian back Freddy Richardson. Gene Phillips and Clarence Fukushima were outstanding for the Indians.

Indians Beat Spartans

Again the Spartans were completely outclassed, this time by the Indians who rode to a 20-7 verdict on Oct. 1. After a first quarter safety, Gene Phillips picked up a bad center and sped over the double stripe from seven yards out. The other six pointers came on a 20-yard pass from Richardson to Fred Fortune, and a 25-yarder from Fortune to Bill Winegar. Mathews scored the lone Spartan tally.

Trojans Win Third Straight Over Winless Indians 4-2

The Trojans, paced by the masterful hurling of Jim Mitchell, chalked up their third straight softball win on Oct. 7 by trouncing the yet-to-win Indians, 4-2.

Mitchell has pitched the Bluemen to two victories and freshman Jim Smith hurled the other Trojan triumph, a 9-1 decision over the Redmen.

The other game was a 9-6 verdict for the Spartans over the Indians. Two games were scheduled this week, with the Trojans to challenge the Spartans Wednesday.

Dots

DAVE

By Dave Miller

A big question for Tip-Off of 1953 is: "Where will we seat everyone?" Of course this is an annual question around the fall at ONC, but it is bigger than ever this season, because officials of the classic this year expect the biggest crowd ever.

In years past, bleachers have been borrowed to help supplement the seats already in Birchard Fieldhouse, but in the past couple years, fans have packed the gym out, with many hundreds having been turned away.

"O" Club president, Chuck McCullough, and Athletic Director Elmore Vail, have been tossing the idea around of having the game in one of the larger courts in Kankakee. But this seems a little too far-fetched in only respect—having your homecoming away from home.

"It would be practical, however, in the sense that many more alumni would come each year, if they were assured of not having to stand up the entire game; and many more turned aside at the gate," quotes McCullough.

SHORT BITS: The Spartan softball teams consists almost 100% of freshmen, excepting coach Don Watson. Their first game, a 9-6 win over the Indians, was an all-frosh affair.... Three of the four class presidents are active athletes on campus, Gene Phillips, frosh prexy; and Bob Squires, sophomore chief, are Indian gridmen .... Don Carpenter, junior president, is quarterback of the Spartans, and of course, Charlie Pauley, senior class prexy, is probably the most active extra-curricular man on campus .... A salute to four great fellows.

Norma Blochberger, stellar Indian softball player and cager, is continuing to declare war on opposing pitchers .... At this writing she has hit safely every time at bat — 10 for 10 .... Violet Schoenwetter of the Trojans, collected 5-6 in her only game .... Norma is coaching the Indians; Jackie Spencer, the Spartans; and Bev Hickler, (the Minnesota Gopher,) is tutoring the Trojans.

Question: Will there ever be a game on ONC's gridiron where the referee may be correct in the spectator's mind? .... I'm beginning to doubt it.... Come on, fans, they're human (and students) just like you and me .... Speaking of football, the Trojans made quite a debut .... In their opener against the Spartans, the first time they touched the ball, a punt from the Green, they ran back 40 yards for a six-pointer (Dean Cummings).

In a recent "O" Club meeting, Prof. Vail was elected as the club sponsor .... Incidentally, Tip-Off tickets this year will sell for $1, with a portion going to the bleacher fund for the gym .... A 16-game card is planned by Prof. Vail for the 1953-54 Intra-mural Basketball program.

HATS OFF: To a fellow few athletes at Olivet know, but one who works behind the scene of every game as janitor, and who does a splendid job. He also shows a wonderful Christian character in his life. None other than Chuck Breen.

Slang Expressions Are Used By ONC Students

By Marilyn Starr

"Oh, George, did you hear what that bonehead said? That guy's gotta go, he's just like a Jew in a junk yard!"

What kind of language is this? Don't be alarmed for you hear it everyday, that is if you come in contact with the typical Olivet student. This is just a concentrated sample of slang voiced on our campus.

Every year the students adopt another phrase or word to add to the unending list. Two years ago the word was "Pot," the following year "Horse" and this year it's a conglomeration of words.

We all have favorites whether it be in the category of girls, boys, food, sports, etc. So it is that some of the students are known by their favorite expressions.

Think of All Wells and "Don't be ignorant," Gene Houchin — "Tilt," "No, josh"—Dave Miller, "You goober"—Wayne Gallup, "Bonehead" — Bill Winegar, "Lick"—Chuck McCullough, "That guy's gotta go"—Darrell Holland and "Terrific" —Harry Romeril.

There are other slang expressions such as "Nuts," "Help us, Hannah," "Jewel," "Don't get wise," "You dum-mie," "Don't get smart." All of these words seem to flavor the conversation of the average Olivet student, although the tendency to use slang is more prominent in the speech of the fellows then it is the girls. Wonder why, fellows?

(Editor's Note—Marilyn, we fellows accept your apology.)

Girls' Softball Season Get Underway At ONC

In the opening 1953 fall Girls' softball game, the Trojans trounced the defending champion Indians by a 25-17 count.

From all appearances of the outcome, it was a real "pitcher's duel" between Doris Anderson of the Indians and Bev Hickler of the Blue.

The women in Blue powered 29 hits—four by Sharon Spence, and three by Ruth Peters, Hickler, Esther Leonard, Mary Jo Cannon, Ginny Sink, Betty Steele, and Marty Hever. For the Indians, coach Norma Blochberger set the example with 5-for-5 while Joan Hendershot and Janet Storer (the Springfield flash) chipped in four safeties.

Indians Win

The Indians copped their initial win of the infant season October 1 by soundly lashing an out-classed Spartan nine, 26-7.

Coach Blochberger continued her blasting with another 5-for-5 afternoon, with Shirley Strickler, and Doris Anderson also pounding out four safe blows. Margie DeBooy paced the women in Green with a 3-for-3 effort.

The assistant librarian, Mrs. Effie Martin, also makes her residence at this address. This is the home where Dr. and Mrs. J. Russell Gardner have been living.

Mrs. Leila High, assistant dean of women, has come to us from California. Mrs. High held a position in a reform school at California. (We hope she can reform some of those girls).

Oct. 11, 1953, marked the last Sunday for Dr. Cotner to be acting pastor at the Lafayette, Ind., First Church of the Nazarene.

Professor Carl Bangs lives at 1615 W. Beverly, Glen Parkway, Chicago 43, Ill. He has been regularly attending a Nazarene Church in Chicago for quite some time.

Seniors Entertained By Juniors After Return From New York Trip

By Pat Gould

New York, New York

Is a wonderful town!

But aren't you glad

You're back safe and sound!

Yes, our seniors have returned from their annual trip to New York. They went sightseeing in New York City and saw Chinatown, Harlem etc. Probably the most outstanding point of the whole trip was their visit to the Statue of Liberty.

The juniors met the tired and weary seniors Tuesday evening, Sept. 29, at Tiny and Effie's. At least twenty-five cars escorted them back to our beloved campus, which as was reported, was a "sight for sore eyes."

The ditty preceding this article was found on the doors of each senior that made the trip. Incidentally, I believe the answer was a big hearty "YES, WE'RE GLAD WE ARE BACK."

With Dave Miller as the M.C. for the evening, the juniors gave the seniors a welcome home party in Miller Dining Hall. The invocation was given by the senior class sponsor, Professor Leo Slagg.

Juniors Present Skits

Throughout the evening various skits were presented which are listed here: Much Ado About Nothing, Cal Mathews; Big Coos Gets into the Act, Gene Houchin; Watch Closely—Single Seniors, Jim Baxter and Virginia King interpreting the call between Jack Jones and Camilla Marsh; A Typical Holland-Wells Epic, Bill

Winegar and Millard Reed; Dragnet, Charles McCullough and Harry Romeril; Our Sponsor Shows Off, a humorous reading by Dr. Leroy Brown; Something New, a quartet, consisting of Charley Pauley, Don Carpenter, senior and junior class presidents respectively; and class sponsors Prof. Leo Slagg and Dr. Leroy Brown.

Refreshments of hot dogs, potato chips, ice cream cake rolls, and soft drinks were served.

Seniors Give Chapel Service

The entire student body was entertained by the senior's skit of their trip on Wednesday in chapel. Narrator was Darrell Holland.
